GREATER VICTORIA HARBOUR AUTHORITY

Senior Accountant

The Greater Victoria Harbour Authority is a self-funded, commercial non-profit organization that owns and manages many of the iconic waterfront spaces around Victoria, including Canada's busiest cruise port-of-call, the Causeway and Fisherman's Wharf. GVHA ensures these spaces remain safe, vibrant, accessible, economically sustainable, and respectful of the unceded territories of the lək̓ʷəŋən People, known today as the Xʷsépsəm (Esquimalt) Nation and Songhees Nation.

Ready to take the next step in your accounting career? The Greater Victoria Harbour Authority is looking for a Senior Accountant to join our Finance team. In this hands-on role, you will play a central part in month-end closing, reconciliations, budgeting, and financial reporting, while guiding our Accounts Receivable and Accounts Payable administrators and helping shape our financial policies, procedures, and systems. If you have a university degree in accounting, at least four years of progressive accounting experience, and a passion for turning numbers into insight, we would love to hear from you. Experience in a not-for-profit setting and CPA PEP enrollment are assets.

This position offers a comprehensive benefits package, including extended health and dental coverage (premiums fully paid by GVHA), RRSP matching, annual bonus eligibility, professional development funding, health spending accounts, paid vacation, additional paid and non-paid leave. After a 90-day onboarding period, you will also enjoy the flexibility of a hybrid schedule, with two days a week at home and three in the office. Recruiting salary range is $75,000 to $85,000.
